19. All Subawards ("Subgrants") must have specific federal authorization

The Subrecipient must comply with all applicable requirements for authorization of any Subaward. This condition applies to agreements that -- for purposes of federal grants administrative requirements -- OJP considers a "Subaward" (and therefore does not consider a procurement "contract").

The details of the requirement for authorization of any Subaward are posted on the OJP web site at <https://ojp.gov/funding/Explore/SubawardAuthorization.htm> (Award condition: All Subawards ("Subgrants") must have specific federal authorization), and are incorporated by reference here.

20. Unreasonable restrictions on competition under the award; association with federal government

This condition applies with respect to any procurement of property or services that is funded (in whole or in part) by this award regardless of the dollar amount of the purchase or acquisition, the method of procurement, or the nature of any legal instrument used.

a. No discrimination, in procurement transactions, against associates of the federal government

Consistent with the (DOJ) Part 200 Uniform Requirements -- including as set out at 2 C.F.R. 200.300 (requiring awards to be "manage[d] and administer[ed] in a manner so as to ensure that Federal funding is expended and associated programs are implemented in full accordance with U.S. statutory and public policy requirements") and 200.319(a) (generally requiring "[a]ll procurement transactions [to] be conducted in a manner providing full and open competition" and forbidding practices "restrictive of competition," such as "[p]lacing unreasonable

d. Rules of construction

- 1) The term "associate of the federal government" means any person or entity engaged or employed (in the past or at present) by or on behalf of the federal government -- as an employee, contractor or subcontractor, grant Subrecipient or Subrecipient, agent, or otherwise -- in undertaking any work, project, or activity for or on behalf of (or in providing goods or services to or on behalf of) the federal government, and includes any applicant for such employment or engagement, and any person or entity committed by legal instrument to undertake any such work, project, or activity (or to provide such goods or services) in future.

21. Determination of suitability to interact with participating minors

This condition applies to this award if it is indicated -- in the application for the award (as approved by DOJ, the DOJ funding announcement (solicitation), or an associated federal statute -- that a purpose of some or all of the activities to be carried out under the award is to benefit a set of individuals under 18 years of age.

The Subrecipient must make determinations of suitability before certain individuals may interact with participating minors. This requirement applies regardless of an individual's employment status.

The details of this requirement are posted on the OJP web site at <https://ojp.gov/funding/Explore/Interact-Minors.htm> (Award condition: Determination of suitability required, in advance, for certain individuals who may interact with participating minors), and are incorporated by reference here.

The Subrecipient must comply with all applicable requirements of 28

C.F.R. Part 38 (as may be applicable from time to time), specifically including any applicable requirements regarding written notice to program beneficiaries and prospective program beneficiaries.

Currently, among other things, 28 C.F.R. Part 38 includes rules that prohibit specific forms of discrimination on the basis of religion, a religious belief, a refusal to hold a religious belief, or refusal to attend or participate in a religious practice. Part 38, currently, also sets out rules and requirements that pertain to Subrecipient organizations that engage in or conduct explicitly religious activities, as well as rules and requirements that pertain to Subrecipients and Subrecipients that are faith-based or religious organizations.

The text of 28 C.F.R. Part 38 is available via the Electronic Code of Federal Regulations (currently accessible at <https://www.ecfr.gov/cgi-> bin/ECFR?page=browse), by browsing to Title 28-Judicial Administration, Chapter 1, Part 38, under e-CFR "current" data.

25. Restrictions on "Lobbying"

In general, as a matter of federal law, federal funds awarded by OJP may not be used by the Subrecipient, either directly or indirectly, to support or oppose the enactment, repeal, modification, or adoption of any law, regulation, or policy, at any level of government. See 18 U.S.C. 1913. (There may be exceptions if an applicable federal statute specifically authorizes certain activities that otherwise would be barred by law.)

Another federal law generally prohibits federal funds awarded by OJP from being used by the Subrecipient to pay any person to influence (or attempt to influence) a federal agency, a Member of Congress, or Congress (or an official or employee of any of them) with respect to the awarding of a federal grant or cooperative agreement, Subgrant, contract, subcontract, or loan, or with respect to actions such as renewing, extending, or modifying any such award. See 31 U.S.C. 1352. Certain exceptions to this law apply, including an exception that applies to Indian tribes and tribal organizations.

Should any question arise as to whether a particular use of federal funds by a Subrecipient would or might fall within the scope of these prohibitions, the Subrecipient is to contact OJP for guidance, and may not proceed without the express prior written approval of OJP.

26. Subgrant Award Report (SAR)

The Subrecipient must submit a SAR to OVC for each Subrecipient of the VOCA victim assistance funds, within ninety (90) days of awarding funds to the Subrecipient. Subrecipients must submit this information through the automated system.

27. Effect of Failure to Address Audit Issues

The Subrecipient understands and agrees that the DOJ awarding agency (OJP or OVW, as appropriate) may withhold award funds, or may impose other related requirements, if (as determined by the DOJ awarding agency) the Subrecipient does not satisfactorily and promptly address outstanding issues from audits required by the Part 200 Uniform Requirements (or by the terms of this Grant Subaward), or other outstanding issues that arise in connection with audits, investigations, or reviews of DOJ awards.

28. Additional DOJ Awarding Agency Requirements (2018, 2019, & 2020)

The Subrecipient agrees to comply with any additional requirements that may be imposed by the DOJ awarding agency (OJP or OVW, as appropriate) during the period of performance for this award, if the Subrecipient is designated as "high- risk" for purposes of the DOJ high-risk grantee list.

29. Hiring Documents

The Subrecipient must keep, maintain, and preserve all documentation (such as Form I-9s or equivalents) regarding the eligibility of employees hired using the fund.

All appropriate documentation must be maintained on file by the Subrecipient and available for Cal OES or public scrutiny upon request. Failure to comply with these requirements may result in suspension of payments under the grant or termination of the grant or both and the Subrecipient may be ineligible for Subaward of any future grants if the Cal OES determines that any of the following has occurred: (1) the Subrecipient has made false certification, or (2) violates the certification by failing to carry out the requirements as noted above.

CERTIFICATION
I, the official named below, am the same individual authorized to sign the Grant Subaward [Section 15 on Grant Subaward Face Sheet], and hereby swear that I am duly authorized legally to bind the contractor or grant Subrecipient to the above described certification. I am fully aware that this certification, executed on the date and in the county below, is made under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California.

a) How the project's proposed budget supports the objectives and activities.

The Victim-Witness Advocate positions will provide case management services as well as the thirteen mandatory and all ten optional services outlined in Penal Code Section 13835 to the identified population of this grant. In addition, the Advocates will provide training to law enforcement agencies within Fresno County regarding the available services provided by this grant and how to access the services. These services, which are also provided to victim family members and witnesses of crimes, include advising participants of the program services and outreach activities; referring program participants to professional care providers; explaining the process of the criminal justice system; accompanying victims, family members, and witnesses to court and related hearings; and assisting participants with claim applications.

The Deputy Probation Officer will conduct follow-ups with identified victims, review the orders of the court, the offender's case file, serve as a liaison with the District Attorney's Office, and guide the victim through the court process regarding matters of restitution. This position will be specific to the XC Grant program.

b) How funds are allocated to minimize administrative costs and support direct services.

In order to minimize administrative costs and support direct services to victims, the implementing agency (Probation Department) absorbs operating expenses. These are data processing charges, liability insurance, office supplies, PeopleSoft Human Resource charges, training and per diem for staff attendance at mandatory training, and emergency housing as well as emergency transportation expenses. The salaries of the Project Director and Financial Officer are not paid by funds from this grant; however, they provide direct services regarding the fiscal requirements of this grant. The Financial Officer reviews documents for financial matters required by the grant, prepares the budget and any modifications, monitors compliance with regulations and procedures mandated by the funding source, and ensures the appropriate expenditure of grant funds.

c) How shared costs are allocated.

There are no shared costs.

d) How project-funded staff duties and time commitments support the proposed objectives and activities.

f) Need for mid-year salary range adjustments.

Salaries are projected at actual Range and Step and are subject to mid-year adjustments for position incumbents.

Project Narrative

Problem Statement

1. A description of your County's demographics.

Fresno County is the sixth largest of 58 California counties covering 6,017 square miles and offering both rural and urban lifestyles in a variety of landscapes. According to the 2020 United States Census results, Fresno is the tenth most populated county with 1,008,654 residents. Approximately, 65% of the County's population resides near the center of the county in the densely populated, adjoining cities of Fresno and Clovis. The balance resides in suburban, rural, and agricultural areas of Fresno County, which includes multiple cities and towns. Fresno County's population increased by 7.4%, 1.3% higher than the statewide growth rate of 6.1% from 2010-2020. Fresno County is home to numerous distinct cultural groups with an extensive diversity in languages and customs. The U.S. Census Bureau reports the population by race in Fresno County as 76.6% white, 5.8% African American, 3% American Indian and Alaskan native, 11.14% Asian, .3% Native Hawaiian and other Pacific Islander, and 3.2% two or more races. Fresno County population is categorized overall as 53.8% Hispanic and 46.2% Non-

Hispanic, 44.6% of its residents speaking a language other than English at home, and has a poverty rate of 20.5%.

Known as the agricultural capital of the world, according to the Fresno Convention & Visitors Bureau, Fresno County is home to 1.88 million acres of the world's most productive farmland.

2. A description of the crime types and victim demographic information that the agencies receiving XC funding serve.

The Fresno County James Rowland Crime Victim Assistance Center (CVAC) has been part of the community since 1975. Prior to that time, crime victims received no assistance from public or private social work or criminal justice agencies to ease their recovery from crime or to meet necessities arising from victimization. Victims were not able to obtain critical information regarding court processes or referral services, nor did they receive attention and guidance in coping with the stresses created by the criminal justice experience. In 1975, under Chief Probation Officer James Rowland, The Fresno County Board of Supervisors designated the Probation Department as the agency to fill this gap in services. Fresno County Probation Department became the first Probation Department in California to establish such a center. Funding through the California Office of Emergency Services (Cal OES) made this possible.

Grant Subaward Programmatic Narrative

Subrecipient: Fresno County

CVAC provides victims of all types of crime with comprehensive services, including the fourteen mandatory and all ten optional services delineated in Section 13835 of the California Penal code. In 2020, CVAC provided services to 6,335 new victims of crime. Service locations have expanded over the years from a single office to three separate locations. This growth was achieved through extended community outreach and our working relationships with agencies providing services to local crime victims. Outreach to rural populations and inter-agency collaboration has built a solid foundation for providing quality services to victims of crime in Fresno County. From the beginning, CVAC has developed, nurtured, and expanded relationships with agencies that serve victims including: The District Attorney's Office, local law enforcement agencies, women's shelters, rape counseling programs, medical providers, and Human Services agencies. These efforts have improved access to services and developed strategies to identify, refer, and address the on-going needs of victims and witnesses of all types of crime, resulting in no limitation of services to specific crime types. Operational Agreements, interagency roundtable committees, interagency cross-training, and monthly meetings to coordinate services strengthen these relationships while maintaining the professional standards of this agency. CVAC provides media and educational campaigns, trainings for new service providers, and community outreach in a concerted public education effort. Public awareness of the impact of crime on victims and services available to victims through this program is vital to reaching those who need it most.

In 2020, those served by CVAC were 43.60% Hispanic, 14.82% white, 10.46% African American, 2.92% Asian American, and 28.20% unknown race. 602 victims served were from rural areas.

The highest crime types of all victims served were domestic violence (48%), child sexual abuse (15%), survivor homicide (11%), and assault (10%).

3. A description of the nature and extent of the victim service gaps/needs affecting your County.

The Fresno County Victims Services Steering committee (VSSC) reconvened on September 9, 2021, to identify the County's victim services/gap needs. VSSC determined the victim services gaps/needs affecting Fresno County remain the same as originally identified by VSSC in 2016 and re-affirmed by the VSSC in 2020. Priority for funding continues to be enhancing services to crime victims in the rural communities of Fresno County through more efficient and effective services including immediate and extended (emergency) housing, transportation, and restitution assistance.

Grant Subaward Programmatic Narrative

Grant Subaward #: XC21 04 0100

Subrecipient: Fresno County

4. The anticipated impact of this funding in addressing the identified victim service gaps/needs.

The focus will have an immediate impact in terms of providing more efficient, effective, and valuable services and be an important step in minimizing harm to all crime victims.

Plan

1. The victim services gaps/needs identified by the VSSC:

- Gap Number 1: Services to Rural Crime Victims

VSSC has prioritized continuing need for services to rural communities. Some areas of Fresno County are located an hour from the City of Fresno where the majority of social services and justice programs are located. Enhanced services to rural communities and towns will allow victim advocates to facilitate mandated and optional services pursuant to PC Section 13835 and provide more efficient processing of CalVCB applications and services.

CVAC now has the capability of assisting rural clients remotely to fill out the State of California Victim Compensation Board (Cal VCB) applications. During this past year, CVAC participated in a pilot project with Cal VCB for the creation of their web-based, secure portals for both victims and advocates to utilize to complete the application, track the status of the claim, and upload needed

Grant Subaward #: XC21 04 0100

Subrecipient: Fresno County

documents directly to Cal VCB. This process has increased the efficiency and timeliness of application submittal. The Fresno County Superior Court, as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic, is conducting remote videoconferencing in the two dedicated felony domestic violence courts. Victims, especially in domestic violence hearings, are fearful of attending court proceedings to obtain information regarding case status, restraining orders, criminal justice process and disposition. Continuing teleconferencing provides victims a safe and secure location to observe Court proceedings. It is anticipated that these processes could be expanded to include victims giving their Victim Impact Statements.

- Gap Number 2: Immediate and Extended (Emergency) Housing

The Steering Committee has prioritized the continued need for immediate and extended, emergency housing for victims of domestic violence, sexual assault, and human trafficking.

Many times, victims lose their homes and possessions as a result of a crime. The criminal justice system may be an extended process with victims requiring immediate emergency housing assistance, until a more permanent solution can be achieved. Through current XC grant funds, CVAC has developed a housing network throughout the county that allows for victims to be accommodated for up to 90 days, while permanent plans can be developed and implemented in conjunction with our community-based partners. CVAC has developed and implemented a comprehensive emergency housing process to accommodate the needs of crime victims who are without shelter or in need of relocation.

Grant Subaward Programmatic Narrative

Subrecipient: Fresno County

In addition, CVAC has established a referral process with three, after-hours crisis service providers in the community that assists victims of domestic violence, sexual assault, and human trafficking. Should those crisis service providers be unable to assist with the victims' immediate emergency housing and/or transportation need, they refer the victim to CVAC, requesting assistance.

- Gap Number 3: Accessible Victim Transportation

The Steering Committee has also prioritized the continued need for accessible transportation for victims of domestic violence, sexual assault, and human trafficking. Transportation is a high priority in terms of safety and security for victims.

The CVAC has developed transportation options consisting of taxicab services, local public transportation bus passes, as well as utilizing gas gift cards for crime victims residing in both the metropolitan and rural areas of Fresno County. This varied approach allows for more options for those in need than previously available.

2. The plan to address the identified victim services gaps/needs (plan must include measurable objectives)

Goal 1: Enhanced services for victims in rural communities and towns to allow Victim-Witness Advocates to facilitate mandated and optional services pursuant to PC Section 13835 and allow for more efficient processing of CalVCB applications and services.

Objectives:

- Continue providing services to victims in rural areas of Fresno County
- Continue videoconferencing to the two dedicated Domestic Violence Courts and the Crime Victim Assistance Center; for victims to observe proceedings remotely and, to give Victim Impact Statements, if preferred
- Provide training and outreach services to law enforcement and various community agencies

Outcome Measures:

- Document the number of victims served in rural areas of Fresno County
- Document the number of victims who participate in videoconferencing with the two dedicated Domestic Violence Courts
- Number of outreach and presentations provided to law enforcement and various agencies

3. The name of the county agency selected to administer the XC Grant Subaward and act as the single point of contact for the grant. The agency selected must be a county victim services provider that provides direct services to victims.

The Fresno County Probation Department will administer the XC Grant.

4. The plan should address how the county agency selected to administer the XC Grant Subaward will use volunteer(s) as part of meeting grant objectives. Use of volunteer(s) is a VOCA funding requirement.

Because of the coronavirus pandemic, use of volunteers is currently not allowed by the Fresno County Probation Department. When able to, it will be a priority once again to develop volunteer services to assist the identified population. With the Fresno State University Criminology Program, which includes a Victimology Option, B.S., it is felt that the practical skills these students would need could be learned at the center. In addition, there is strong interest at the Clovis City College and Fresno City College level to participate in volunteerism with crime victims. Volunteers document their hours for each shift worked on the Volunteer Log, which is signed by the supervising Victim-Witness Advocate and maintained for audit purposes. Typical duties of a volunteer include:

transportation of police reports from law enforcement to the Victim-Witness Advocate, reception duties, initial phone contact with new victims, assisting the Victim-Witness Advocate with completing the Victim Compensation Application process, assisting at community presentations and events, court support, and other duties depending on the training and personal abilities of each volunteer.

All staff and volunteers are trained to provide culturally sensitive intervention and prevention services and are dedicated to meeting clients' needs.

5. Distribution of funds

The Probation Department proposes three (3) FTE permanent Victim-Witness Advocates which are included in the proposed salaries and benefits. Salaries are projected at the actual Range and Step and are subject to mid-year adjustments for position incumbents.

The Victim-Witness Advocate position will provide case management services as well as the thirteen mandatory and all ten optional services outlined in Penal Code Section 13835 to the identified population of this grant. In addition, the advocates will provide training to law enforcement agencies within Fresno County regarding the available services provided by this grant and how to access the services. These services, which are also provided to victim family members and witnesses of crimes, include advising participants of program services and outreach activities; referring program participants to professional care providers; explaining the process of the criminal justice system; accompanying victims, family members, and witnesses to court and related hearings; and assisting participants with claim applications. Sixty semester units of academic work from one or more of the following disciplines: psychology, sociology, criminology, or a related field is required for this position.

All too often, persons who suffer losses because of criminal activity also incur a financial loss. In many of these instances, the necessary documentation is not available at the time of sentencing and the Court will order restitution as "To Be Determined"; in addition, follow up with victims where the offenders placed on Probation supervision is rare. The one (1) FTE permanent Deputy Probation Officer IV (DPO IV) position will assume the responsibility in conducting follow-ups with identified victims. The DPO IV will review the orders of the court, the offender's case file, serve as a liaison with the District Attorney's Office, and communicate with the offenders' assigned Probation Officer and guide the victim through the court process regarding matters of restitution. This position will be specific to the XC Grant program.

RE: Fresno County Application

Good Morning,

Attached please find the electronic copy of Fresno County Probation Department's County Victim Services (XC) Program application for the grant subaward performance period beginning January 1, 2022 and ending December 31, 2022.

Due to the meeting schedule and processing requirements for agenda items to reach the Fresno County Board of Supervisors, it was not possible to secure formal authorization prior to the submittal of this application.

We expect the application to be submitted to the Board of Supervisors as soon as possible. Upon the Board's approval, the signed Grant Subaward Face Sheet, Certification of Assurance of Compliance, and Subrecipient Grants Management Assessment will be forwarded to your office.

Please let me know if anything further is required.

Respectfully,

Kirk Haynes
Chief Probation Officer
