Services offered will develop skills and knowledge so that families can prevent and address future challenges. NRCs will provide assistance to people to gain access to resources through referrals and linkages, and to have a say in their children's education.

NRCs may offer a variety of core NRC services depending on the needs of the community they serve. EPU through their collaboration with The Fresno Center at a minimum will provide these NRC services:

- Parent Leadership Skills training
- Case Management
- Peer to Peer Supports
- Basic Life Skills
- Drop-in Availability
- Participation in DSS TDMs as needed
- Resource, information and referrals
- Financial Literacy
- Community Food Bank

TFC will provide the listed services in addition to services funded by other programs. All services will be provided in the 93727 zip code.

NOTICE OF CHILD ABUSE REPORTING LAW

The undersigned hereby acknowledges that Penal Code section 11166 and the contractual obligations between County of Fresno (COUNTY) and Exceptional Parents Unlimited, Inc., related to provision of services, require that the undersigned report all known or suspected child abuse or neglect to one or more of the agencies set forth in Penal Code (P.C.) section (§) 11165.9.

For purposes of the undersigned's child abuse reporting requirements, "child abuse or neglect" includes physical injury inflicted by other than accidental means upon a child by another person, sexual abuse as defined in P.C. §11165.1, neglect as defined in P.C. §11165.2, willful cruelty or unjustifiable punishment as defined in P.C. §11165.3, and unlawful corporal punishment or injury as defined in P.C. §11165.4.

A child abuse report shall be made whenever the undersigned, in his or her professional capacity or within the scope of his or her employment, has knowledge of or observes a child whom the undersigned knows or reasonably suspects has been the victim of child abuse or neglect. (P.C. §11166.) The child abuse report shall be made to any police department or sheriff's department (not including a school district police or security department), or to any county welfare department, including Fresno County Department of Social Services' 24 Hour CARELINE. (See PC §11165.9.)

For purposes of child abuse reporting, a "reasonable suspicion" means that it is objectively reasonable for a person to entertain a suspicion, based upon facts that could cause a reasonable person in a like position, drawing, when appropriate, on his or her training and experience, to suspect child abuse or neglect. The pregnancy of a child does not, in and of itself, constitute a basis for reasonable suspicion of sexual abuse. (P.C. §11166(a)(1).)

Substantial penalties may be imposed for failure to comply with these child abuse reporting requirements. Further information and a copy of the law may be obtained from the County of Fresno Department of Social Services Director or designee.

I have read and understand the above statement and agree to comply with the child abuse reporting requirements.
