

FIRST AMENDMENT TO SERVICE AGREEMENT

This First Amendment to Service Agreement ("First Amendment") is dated December 9, 2025 and is between Almared Inc. dba A-1 Auto Electric/A-1 Alternative Fuel Systems, a California corporation ("Contractor"), and the County of Fresno, a political subdivision of the State of California ("County").

Recitals

A. On January 1, 2023, the County entered into Purchasing Agreement No. P-23-007 ("Purchasing Agreement") with the Contractor for maintenance and repair for Sheriff's Office vehicles for a total maximum compensation payable of $200,000, effective January 1, 2023 through December 31, 2025, with the option of two (2) additional one (1) year periods extension by mutual written consent of all parties.

B. The County and the Contractor now desire to amend the Purchasing Agreement to increase available compensation from $200,000 to $500,000, an increase of $300,000, to allow for continued maintenance and repair for Sheriff's Office vehicles, so that the Contractor may continue provide services to the Sheriff's Office.

The parties therefore agree as follows:

1. The paragraph entitled "MAXIMUM" on page one (1) of the Purchasing Agreement is deleted in its entirety and replaced with the following:

"MAXIMUM: In no event shall compensation paid for services performed under this Agreement exceed five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000)."

2. When both parties have signed this First Amendment, the Purchasing Agreement, and this First Amendment together shall constitute the Agreement.

3. The Contractor represents and warrants to the County that:

- a. The Contractor is duly authorized and empowered to sign and perform its obligations under this First Amendment.
- b. The individual signing this First Amendment on behalf of the Contractor is duly authorized to do so and his or her signature on this First Amendment legally binds the Contractor to the terms of this First Amendment.

4. The parties agree that this First Amendment may be executed by electronic signature as provided in this section.

a. An “electronic signature” means any symbol or process intended by an individual signing this First Amendment to represent their signature, including but not limited to (1) a digital signature; (2) a faxed version of an original handwritten signature; or (3) an electronically scanned and transmitted (for example by PDF document) version of an original handwritten signature.

b. Each electronic signature affixed or attached to this First Amendment (1) is deemed equivalent to a valid original handwritten signature of the person signing this Amendment for all purposes, including but not limited to evidentiary proof in any administrative or judicial proceeding, and (2) has the same force and effect as the valid original handwritten signature of that person.

c. The provisions of this section satisfy the requirements of Civil Code section 1633.5, subdivision (b), in the Uniform Electronic Transaction Act (Civil Code, Division 3, Part 2, Title 2.5, beginning with section 1633.1).

d. Each party using a digital signature represents that it has undertaken and satisfied the requirements of Government Code section 16.5, subdivision (a), paragraphs (1) through (5), and agrees that each other party may rely upon that representation.

e. This First Amendment is not conditioned upon the parties conducting the transactions under it by electronic means and either party may sign this First Amendment with an original handwritten signature.

5. This First Amendment may be signed in counterparts, each of which is an original, and all of which together constitute this First Amendment.

6. The Agreement as amended by this First Amendment is ratified and continued. All provisions of the Agreement not amended by this First Amendment remain in full force and effect.
