

A Resolution of the Board of Supervisors of the County of Fresno Establishing a Revolving Fund for the Sheriff-Coroner's Office Area 2

WHEREAS, the Sheriff-Coroner's Office needs a revolving fund, to be used by Area 2 Sheriff-Coroner's Office property detectives to conduct divisional investigative activities, including cultivating informants by paying the informants, controlled purchase of stolen property to further criminal investigations and make arrests as a form of solving crimes, and to be used for meals during ongoing investigations when employees are unable to leave a scene and for meals for children of victims during interviews; and

WHEREAS, the amount of this revolving cash fund shall be $5,000; and

WHEREAS, the Sheriff-Coroner's Office shall maintain this revolving fund under its direct administrative control, with periodic disbursements to the Lieutenant designated as the Assistant Commander of Area 2, who will be responsible for maintaining all accounting records for the fund, including records of disbursement, reimbursement, consignment to Detectives, and when applicable, evidence monies; and

1 WHEREAS, Government Code section 29330 provides that the Board may at any time
2 increase, reduce or discontinue any revolving fund established by its order.
