RE: Fresno County – West Annex Jail
Request from Bernards to De-list McGuire Contracting Incorporating

Dear Mr. McGuire:

Kitchell is in receipt of Bernards letter dated March 22, 2018 (attached) regarding a request to De-List your firm (McGuire Contracting, Incorporated) from subcontracting for the West Annex Jail project and substitute a different contractor to perform the scope of work submitted in the bid received by Fresno County on October 20, 2017. Kitchell's understanding as the reason for McGuire to pull their bid, is a lack of resources to perform the work.

Pursuant to Public Contract Code 4107, McGuire has 5 working days from receipt of this letter to provide a written objection to this request. Failure to file these written objections constitutes the listed subcontractor's consent to the substitution.

If there are any questions, please contact Jim Anderson at (559) 304-4476.

Sincerely,

RE: Request to De-list McGuire Contracting Incorporated

Dear Jim,

McGuire Contracting is the listed Subcontractor for Structural Concrete on the Fresno County West Annex Jail Project. They are not willing to enter into subcontract with Bernards due to resource issues. Please initiate the de-listing process. Should you have questions or require additional information, please contact the undersigned.

Sincerely,
