Union business representatives will be granted reasonable access to work locations, with the approval of the appropriate management representative, for the purpose of conducting grievance investigations and observing working conditions.

BULLETIN BOARDS

The County shall provide space for and permit the installation of Union bulletin boards for official Union notices at each central work location where the Union represents members of this Unit. Such bulletin boards shall be maintained by the Union in accordance with provisions of the County's Employee Relations Ordinance, shall be approximately 4' x 3' and shall be available for Union posting only.

MEETING SPACE

The County, at the Union's request, shall reasonably make available conference rooms and other meeting areas for the purpose of holding Union meetings during off-duty time periods. The Union shall provide timely advance notice (72 hours) of such meetings. The Union also agrees to pay any documented additional costs of security, supervision, damage and cleanup, and shall comply with County regulations for assignment and use of such facilities.

RELEASE TIME

When the Union wishes to be represented by a County employee(s) rather than a business representative at meetings within the scope of representation which affect the Unit, such employee representative(s) will have release time for presentations to County boards, committees and commissions and for meeting with management at the department and county-wide level. A written notice will be provided to the County's negotiating representative and the department head at least seventy-two (72) hours prior to the scheduled meeting unless waived by mutual agreement. Reasonable release time will be approved if it does not interfere with the performance of County services, as determined by the department head.

STEWARDS

The Union may select a steward for each centralized worksite. When more than thirty (30) employees are permanently assigned to any centralized worksite, two (2) stewards may be selected. The steward shall be given reasonable release time to notify the Union's business representative of grievances or violations of this MOU and/or to investigate such grievances consistent with the grievance procedure.

Stewards will not process grievances. The County agrees that the Union business representative will be granted reasonable access (after notification to the management representative in charge) to the steward and concerned member or members upon receiving a report of a grievance or violation of this MOU. The Union agrees that the business representative will notify the management representative in charge immediately upon arrival at a work location.

The Union shall notify the Labor Relations Manager and the appropriate department head(s) each time there is a change of stewards.

REPRESENTATION RIGHTS

The County shall adhere to representation rights as detailed in U.S. Supreme Court decision on N.L.R.B. versus J. Weingarten, Inc. Alleged misapplications of “Weingarten Rights” shall not be subject to the Fresno County Employee Grievance Procedure.

UNION/MANAGEMENT MEETINGS

The parties recognize that timely resolution of operational/service issues is in the best interest of employees, the County and the customers we serve. Therefore, the parties agree that employees are required to follow their chain of command (beginning at the lowest level supervisor/manager as appropriate) to resolve operational issues that arise and to make recommendations regarding such operations/services issues.

The Union representative and no more than two stewards shall have the opportunity to meet with the department head for Internal Services Department or his/her designee in or around January and July of each year to discuss issues that were not resolved through the normal chain of command and/or make recommendations regarding operations/service issues. If the Union desires to meet, they shall submit an agenda of the issues that they wish to discuss to the department head in advance of the scheduled meeting. The Union or management may schedule additional meetings, by mutual agreement. This language does not preclude employees from seeking remedy through any other lawful avenue.

DUES DEDUCTIONS

Each employee may or may not become a Union member at their option. A registry shall be maintained in the Payroll section of the Auditor-Controller/Treasurer-Tax Collector’s Office for Union inspection.

Union members may withdraw their membership during the last month prior to the expiration of the MOU, when the MOU expires and there is no successor MOU/extension in effect, or when their job classification is removed from the Unit.

The County shall deduct, once each pay period, the amount of regular and periodic dues, fees and other monies as may be agreed upon between the County and the Union under the authority of an authorization card furnished by the County and signed and dated by the employee.

Said deduction, together with a written statement of the names with amounts deducted, shall be forwarded promptly to the Union office.

Subject to all provisions of the Employee Relations Ordinance of the County of Fresno, the County agrees to continue deducting dues, fees and other agreed monies from employee’s pay. All Unit employees are covered by the Fresno County Employee Grievance Resolution Procedure as described below. Refer to the attachment for a copy of the Employee Grievance Resolution Form.

PURPOSE

It is a mutual obligation on the part of administrative, supervisory and non-supervisory employees of the County of Fresno to provide efficient and continuous services to the public. Employee morale is an important factor in maintaining a high level of public service and the administration has a responsibility to provide an orderly and expeditious method for resolving grievances, which may arise from working relationships and conditions. This procedure is intended to provide an orderly method for processing grievances in the interest of obtaining a fair and equitable solution.

GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

Before filing a grievance, be certain to read this entire procedure, including the rules and definitions.

Step 1: Informal Resolution

When an employee becomes aware that a problem exists, the employee shall discuss the matter informally with the lowest ranking immediate supervisor whose job classification is not included in the same certified representation unit. This discussion shall be sought by the employee(s) not later than fourteen (14) calendar days after the alleged grievance occurred or was discovered. The provisions outlined in Steps 2 and 3 do not act to restrict the employee or the immediate supervisor from seeking advice and counsel when it appears that settlement can be reached informally. The supervisor will respond in writing to the employee within seven (7) calendar days of their discussion with the employee.

Step 2: Department Review

If a mutually acceptable solution has not been reached during Step 1, and the employee wishes to pursue the grievance formally, the employee shall submit it in writing on the attached Employee Grievance Resolution Form to the Department head with a copy to the Labor Relations Division no later than seven (7) days after the supervisor's written response. The Department Heads will consider the grievance, and render a written decision on the grievance form, or by attached copy, within seven (7) calendar days of receipt of the formal grievance from the employee. The written decision shall include a clear and concise statement including the reason(s) for the decision.

If the Department, in consultation with the Labor Relations Division, determines that the grievance is outside the Department Head's authority, or the grievance involves employees working in separate departments, then such grievance shall be submitted to Step 3.

Step 3: Labor Relations Review

Grievances unresolved at Step 2, involving matters outside the Department Head's authority, or involving employees working in separate departments may be submitted to the Labor Relations Division for resolution. If the grievance has been reviewed at Step 2, Labor Relations Division will attempt to mediate the grievance between the parties concerned. If the grievance has been referred directly to the Labor Relations Division, without having gone through Step 2, the Labor Relations Division will consider the grievance, and shall provide a written response to the employee or their representative. A request for Labor Relations Review must be received by the Labor Relations Division within seven (7) calendar days of the completion of Step 2, or within seven (7) calendar days of the completion of Step 1 for grievances involving matters outside the Department Head's authority, or involving employees working in separate departments.

Labor Relations Review must occur within fourteen (14) calendar days of receipt of the request for such review, unless mutually waived.

Step 4: Mediation

Grievances unresolved at Step 3 may be submitted to Mediation upon written request by the employee, or their representative, to the Labor Relations Division within seven (7) calendar days of the completion of Step 3. Should mediation be requested, the parties shall obtain the services of a Mediator from the State Mediation and Conciliation Services in an effort to mediate a grievance resolution before Step 5 is pursued. The parties shall not divulge in any form the offers made in mediation.

Step 5: Grievance Hearing

Grievances unresolved at Step 4 may be submitted to a Grievance Hearing. If the grievance is resolved through Mediation, the employee or their representative shall contact State Mediation and Conciliation Services, within seven (7) calendar days of completion of Mediation, to obtain a list of periods willing to serve as Arbitrator, with a copy to the Labor Relations Division. The cost of the Hearing Officer shall be borne equally by the employee, or their representative, and the County.

A pre-hearing conference with the Hearing Officer and the parties shall be set on the day of the hearing immediately preceding the hearing. The purpose of the conference is to identify issues to be resolved and any available remedies; to determine jurisdiction and/or grievability; to stipulate to uncontested facts and documents; to identify whether or not the potential decision can be implemented or is appealable; to review the process and conduct of the hearing; and to identify any potential problems. The Hearing Officer shall state in writing their factual findings and reasons for their decision within thirty (30) calendar days of the hearing, if possible.

Implementation

If the remedy requested by the employee can be implemented by the Department Head the decision of the Hearing Officer is final and subject to judicial review as set forth below. If the remedy requested by the employee cannot be implemented by the Department Head by requires action by the Board of Supervisors, the Hearing Officer shall issue a recommendation to the Board of Supervisors. The recommendation will be submitted for consideration by the Board of Supervisors at their next regularly scheduled public meeting. The action of the Board of Supervisors shall be final and binding.

Judicial Review

The Hearing Officer's decision may be submitted to the Superior Court for judicial review by either the County of the employee. A court reporter will be required to preserve the record of the hearing for appeal, if any, of the Hearing Officer's decision in a court of law pursuant to these rules. The cost of the court reporter shall be borne equally by the employee, or their representative, and the County. Appeal from decisions by the Hearing Officer shall be on the record of the Hearing Officer hearing by administrative mandamus under California Code of Civil Procedure Section 1094.5, which appeal shall be filed within ninety (90) calendar days after the Hearing Officer's decision.

GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE RULES

1. Except where a remedy is otherwise provided for by County Charter, Civil Service Commission rules, or law, any employee shall have the right to present a grievance arising from their employment in accordance with the rules and regulations of this procedure. Grievances filed that are pursuant to another administrative remedy, e.g. discrimination complaint procedure, shall be returned unprocessed with an explanation for the decision.
2. All parties so involved must act in good faith and strive for objectivity, while endeavoring to reach a solution at the earliest possible step of the procedure. The aggrieved employee shall have the assurance that filing of a grievance will not result in reprisal of any nature.
3. A grievance shall be filed using the attached Employee Grievance Resolution Form. The Employee Grievance Resolution Form will be made available through the individual departments, the Labor Relations Division, The Department of Human Resources website, and Stationary Engineers – Local 39.
4. The aggrieved employees shall have the right to represent their own grievance or do so through a representative of their choice. This representation may commence when the grievance is presented formally in writing as provided in Step 2.
5. The processing of a grievance shall be considered as County business, and the employee and their representative, if any, shall have reasonable time and facilities allocated. The use of County time for this purpose shall not be excessive, nor shall this privilege be abused. The Department Head consideration the “impact” on departmental operations_when granting time and facilities involving the processing of a grievance.
6. Time limits in the grievance procedure are designed to quickly settle a grievance. It is realized, however, that on occasions, the parties concerned may be unable to comply with the established limitations. In such instances, the limitations may be extended upon the mutual agreement of all parties concerned.
7. Failure of the employee or their representative to abide by the prescribed time limits at any phase shall terminate the grievance process and the matter shall be deemed resolved. The County shall abide by the prescribed time limits; failure to do so will result in the grievance being automatically moved to the next phase of the grievance procedure, unless the next step is the Grievance Hearing.
8. When two (2) or more employees experience a common grievance, they may initiate a single group grievance. A minimum of two (2) employees must sign the grievance form. If the employees work in separate departments, the grievance shall be referred immediately for a Labor Relations Review.

The cost of the Hearing Officer shall be borne equally by the employee or their representative and the County.
