<ul> <li>IN THE MATTER OF PROCLAIMING ) MARCH 28, 2017 AS "DIGNITY AND ) RIGHT FOR VALLEY FARMWORKERS DAY)</li> <li>WHEREAS, farmworkers in Fresno County deserve the same dignity and rights as all Californians in that they should be able to vote on whether to be represented by a union, whether to rat a contract and whether to decertify a union that has had no contact with them for almost two decades; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, the state Agricultural Labor Relations Board has spent over $4,000 per vote using taxpayer dollars to oppose thousands of Fresno County-based farmworkers who want their votes counted in an election that was organized and supervised by that same Agricultural Labor Relations Board; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, the Agricultural Labor Relations Board has tried to force a government-written contract on thousands of Fresno County-based farmworkers without counting their votes and without allowing a ratification vote even though that government-written contract would bar the employees from petitioning for another election for years; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, the largest farm labor protests in Fresno County's history have taken place in the last few years and have been directed against the Agricultural Labor Relations Board, yet the government-written contract would strip the workers of the protected right to continue to protest the Agricultural Labor Relations Board; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, the California Court of Appeal unanimously ruled that the Agricultural Labor Relations Board's government-written forced contracting scheme to be unconstitutional.</li> <li>NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Fresno County Board of Supervisors hereby proclaims March 28, 2017 as "Dignity and Right for Valley Farmworkers Day" in the County of Fresno.</li> </ul>
COUNT FOR ALSNO           STATE OF CALIFORNIA           IN THE MATTER OF PROCLAMING )         RESOLUTION NO. 17-177           MARCH 28, 2017 AS "DIGNITY AND )         RESOLUTION NO. 17-177           MARCH 28, 2017 AS "DIGNITY AND )         RESOLUTION NO. 17-177           MARCH 28, 2017 AS "DIGNITY AND )         RESOLUTION NO. 17-177           MARCH 28, 2017 AS "DIGNITY AND )         RESOLUTION NO. 17-177           MARCH 28, 2017 AS "DIGNITY AND )         RESOLUTION NO. 17-177           MARCH 28, 2017 AS "DIGNITY AND )         Resolution and indication workers in Fresno County deserve the same dignity and rights as all californians in that they should be able to vote on whether to be represented by a union, whether to ra a contract and whether to decertify a union that has had no contact with them for almost two decades; and           WHEREAS, the state Agricultural Labor Relations Board has spent over $4,000 per vote using taxpayer dollars to oppose thousands of Fresno County-based farmworkers without counting their votes and without aliowing a ratification vote even though that government-written contract would bar the employees from petitoning for another election for years; and           WHEREAS, the largest farm labor protests in Fresno County's history have taken place in the last few years and have been directed against the Agricultural Labor Relations Board, yet the government-written contract would stip the workers of the protected right to continue to protest the Agricultural Labor Relations Board's government-written contract would stip the workers of the protected right to continue to protest the Agricultural Labor Relations Board's government-writhen contract	1
MARCH 28, 2017 AS DIGNITY AND       )         MARCH 28, 2017 AS DIGNITY AND       )         RIGHT FOR VALLEY FARMWORKERS DAY)         WHEREAS, farmworkers in Fresno County deserve the same dignity and rights as all         Californians in that they should be able to vote on whether to be represented by a union, whether to rate a contract and whether to decertify a union that has had no contact with them for almost two decades; and         WHEREAS, the state Agricultural Labor Relations Board has spent over $4,000 per vote using taxpayer dollars to oppose thousands of Fresno County-based farmworkers who want their votes counted in an election that was organized and supervised by that same Agricultural Labor Relations Board has tried to force a government-written contract on thousands of Fresno County-based farmworkers without counting their votes and without allowing a ratification vote even though that government-written contract would bar the employees from petitioning for another election for years; and         WHEREAS, the largest farm labor protests in Fresno County's history have taken place in the last few years and have been directed against the Agricultural Labor Relations Board, yet the government-written contract would strip the workers of the protected right to continue to protest the Agricultural Labor Relations Board's government-written force contracting scheme to be unconstitutional.         MONTHEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Fresno County Board of Supervisors hereby proclaims March 28, 2017 as "Dignity and Right for Valley Farmworkers Day" in the County of Fresno.         HEREAS, the California Court of Appeal unanimously ruled that the Agricultural Labor Relations Board's government-written contracting scheme to be unconstitutional.	2
RIGHT FOR VALLEY FARMWORKERS DAY)         WHEREAS, farmworkers in Fresno County deserve the same dignity and rights as all Californians in that they should be able to vote on whether to be represented by a union, whether to rate a contract and whether to decertify a union that has had no contact with them for almost two decades; and         WHEREAS, the state Agricultural Labor Relations Board has spent over $4,000 per vote using taxpayer dollars to oppose thousands of Fresno County-based farmworkers who want their votes counted in an election that was organized and supervised by that same Agricultural Labor Relations Board; and         WHEREAS, the Agricultural Labor Relations Board has tried to force a government-written contract on thousands of Fresno County-based farmworkers without counting their votes and without allowing a ratification vote even though that government-written contract would bar the employees from petitioning for another election for years; and         WHEREAS, the largest farm labor protests in Fresno County's history have taken place in the tast few years and have been directed agains the Agricultural Labor Relations Board, yet the government-written contract would strip the workers of the protected right to continue to protest the Agricultural Labor Relations Board, and         WHEREAS, the California Court of Appeal unanimously ruled that the Agricultural Labor Relations Board's government-written forced contracting scheme to be unconstitutional.         NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Fresno County Board of Supervisors hereby proclaims March 28, 2017 as "Dignity and Right for Valley Farmworkers Day" in the County of Fresno.         HEREAS: None       Mather Agricultural Labor Relations Board of Supervisors         BERNICE E. SEIDEL </td <td>3</td> <td>IN THE MATTER OF PROCLAIMING ) RESOLUTION NO. 17-177</td>	3	IN THE MATTER OF PROCLAIMING ) RESOLUTION NO. 17-177
Californians in that they should be able to vote on whether to be represented by a union, whether to a contract and whether to decertify a union that has had no contact with them for almost two decades; and WHEREAS, the state Agricultural Labor Relations Board has spent over $4,000 per vote using taxpayer dollars to oppose thousands of Fresno County-based farmworkers who want their votes counted in an election that was organized and supervised by that same Agricultural Labor Relations Board; and WHEREAS, the Agricultural Labor Relations Board has tried to force a government-written contract on thousands of Fresno County-based farmworkers without counting their votes and without allowing a ratification vote even though that government-written contract would bar the employees from petitioning for another election for years; and WHEREAS, the largest farm labor protests in Fresno County's history have taken place in the last few years and have been directed against the Agricultural Labor Relations Board, yet the government-written contract would strip the workers of the protected right to continue to protest the Agricultural Labor Relations Board's government-written forced contracting scheme to be unconstitutional. NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Fresno County Board of Supervisors hereby proclaims March 28, 2017 as "Dignity and Right for Valley Farmworkers Day" in the County of Fresno. HE FOREGOING was passed and adopted by the following vote of the Board of Supervisors the Agricultural Labor NOES: None ABSENT: None ABSENT	4
a contract and whether to decertify a union that has had no contact with them for almost two decades; and WHEREAS, the state Agricultural Labor Relations Board has spent over $4,000 per vote using taxpayer dollars to oppose thousands of Fresno County-based farmworkers who want their votes counted in an election that was organized and supervised by that same Agricultural Labor Relations Board; and WHEREAS, the Agricultural Labor Relations Board has tried to force a government-written contract on thousands of Fresno County-based farmworkers without counting their votes and without allowing a ratification vote even though that government-written contract would bar the employees from petitioning for another election for years; and WHEREAS, the largest farm labor protests in Fresno County's history have taken place in the last few years and have been directed against the Agricultural Labor Relations Board, yet the government-written contract would strip the workers of the protected right to continue to protest the Agricultural Labor Relations Board; and WHEREAS, the California Court of Appeal unanimously ruled that the Agricultural Labor Relations Board's government-written forced contracting scheme to be unconstitutional. NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Fresno County Board of Supervisors hereby proclaims March 28, 2017 as "Dignity and Right for Valley Farmworkers Day" in the County of Fresno. THE FOREGOING was passed and adopted by the following vote of the Board of Supervisors the County of Fresno this 28 TH day of March, 2017, to-wit: AYES: Supervisors, Borgeas, Magsig, Mendes, Pacheco, Quintero NOES: None ABSENT: None ATTEST: BERNICE E. SEIDEL Clerk, Board of Supervisors By Cusonn Bishop Deputy	5	Californians in that they should be able to vote on whether to be represented by a union, whether to ratify a contract and whether to decertify a union that has had no contact with them for almost two decades; and WHEREAS , the state Agricultural Labor Relations Board has spent over $4,000 per vote using taxpayer dollars to oppose thousands of Fresno County-based farmworkers who want their votes counted in an election that was organized and supervised by that same Agricultural Labor
WHEREAS, the state Agricultural Labor Relations Board has spent over $4,000 per vote using taxpayer dollars to oppose thousands of Fresno County-based farmworkers who want their votes counted in an election that was organized and supervised by that same Agricultural Labor Relations Board; and         WHEREAS, the Agricultural Labor Relations Board has tried to force a government-written contract on thousands of Fresno County-based farmworkers without counting their votes and without allowing a ratification vote even though that government-written contract would bar the employees from petitioning for another election for years; and         WHEREAS, the largest farm labor protests in Fresno County's history have taken place in the last few years and have been directed against the Agricultural Labor Relations Board, yet the government-written contract would strip the workers of the protected right to continue to protest the Agricultural Labor Relations Board's government-written forced contracting scheme to be unconstitutional.         NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Fresno County Board of Supervisors hereby proclaims March 28, 2017 as "Dignity and Right for Valley Farmworkers Day" in the County of Fresno.         THE FOREGOING was passed and adopted by the following vote of the Board of Supervisors the County of Fresno this 28 TH day of March, 2017, to-wit:         AYES:       Supervisors, Borgeas, Magsig, Mendes, Pacheco, Quintero NOES:         ATTEST:       BERNICE E. SEIDEL         Clerk, Board of Supervisors       CHAIRMAN, Board of Supervisors         By       Supervisors         By       Supervisors         By       Supervisors <td< td=""><td></td></td<>
<ul> <li>votes counted in an election that was organized and supervised by that same Agricultural Labor Relations Board; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, the Agricultural Labor Relations Board has tried to force a government-written contract on thousands of Fresno County-based farmworkers without counting their votes and without allowing a ratification vote even though that government-written contract would bar the employees from petitioning for another election for years; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, the largest farm labor protests in Fresno County's history have taken place in the last few years and have been directed against the Agricultural Labor Relations Board, yet the government-written contract would strip the workers of the protected right to continue to protest the Agricultural Labor Relations Board; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, the California Court of Appeal unanimously ruled that the Agricultural Labor Relations Board's government-written forced contracting scheme to be unconstitutional.</li> <li>NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Fresno County Board of Supervisors hereby proclaims March 28, 2017 as "Dignity and Right for Valley Farmworkers Day" in the County of Fresno.</li> <li>THE FOREGOING was passed and adopted by the following vote of the Board of Supervisors the County of Fresno this 28TH day of March, 2017, to-wit:</li> <li>AYES: Supervisors, Borgeas, Magsig, Mendes, Pacheco, Quintero NOES: None ABSENT: None</li> <li>ATTEST: BERNICE E. SEIDEL Clerk, Board of Supervisors</li> <li>By Guson Bishop Deputy</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>contract on thousands of Fresno County-based farmworkers without counting their votes and without allowing a ratification vote even though that government-written contract would bar the employees from petitioning for another election for years; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, the largest farm labor protests in Fresno County's history have taken place in the last few years and have been directed against the Agricultural Labor Relations Board, yet the government-written contract would strip the workers of the protected right to continue to protest the Agricultural Labor Relations Board; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, the California Court of Appeal unanimously ruled that the Agricultural Labor Relations Board's government-written forced contracting scheme to be unconstitutional.</li> <li>NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Fresno County Board of Supervisors hereby proclaims March 28, 2017 as "Dignity and Right for Valley Farmworkers Day" in the County of Fresno.</li> <li>THE FOREGOING was passed and adopted by the following vote of the Board of Supervisors the County of Fresno this 28TH day of March, 2017, to-wit:</li> <li>AYES: Supervisors, Borgeas, Magsig, Mendes, Pacheco, Quintero NOES: None ABSENT: None</li> <li>ATTEST: BERNICE E. SEIDEL Clerk, Board of Supervisors</li> <li>By Susan Bishop Deputy</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>allowing a ratification vote even though that government-written contract would bar the employees from petitioning for another election for years; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, the largest farm labor protests in Fresno County's history have taken place in the last few years and have been directed against the Agricultural Labor Relations Board, yet the government-written contract would strip the workers of the protected right to continue to protest the Agricultural Labor Relations Board; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, the California Court of Appeal unanimously ruled that the Agricultural Labor Relations Board's government-written forced contracting scheme to be unconstitutional.</li> <li>NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Fresno County Board of Supervisors hereby proclaims March 28, 2017 as "Dignity and Right for Valley Farmworkers Day" in the County of Fresno.</li> <li>THE FOREGOING was passed and adopted by the following vote of the Board of Supervisors the County of Fresno.</li> <li>AYES: Supervisors, Borgeas, Magsig, Mendes, Pacheco, Quintero NOES: None ABSENT: None</li> <li>ATTEST: BERNICE E. SEIDEL Clerk, Board of Supervisors</li> <li>By Suson Bishop</li> <li>Deputy</li> </ul>		contract on thousands of Fresno County-based farmworkers without counting their votes and without allowing a ratification vote even though that government-written contract would bar the employees
WHEREAS, the largest farm labor protests in Fresno County's history have taken place in         the last few years and have been directed against the Agricultural Labor Relations Board, yet the         government-written contract would strip the workers of the protected right to continue to protest         the Agricultural Labor Relations Board; and         WHEREAS, the California Court of Appeal unanimously ruled that the Agricultural Labor         Relations Board's government-written forced contracting scheme to be unconstitutional.         NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Fresno County Board of Supervisors hereby         proclaims March 28, 2017 as "Dignity and Right for Valley Farmworkers Day" in the         County of Fresno.         THE FOREGOING was passed and adopted by the following vote of the Board of Supervisors         the County of Fresno this 28 TH day of March, 2017, to-wit:         AYES:       Supervisors, Borgeas, Magsig, Mendes, Pacheco, Quintero         NOES:       None         ABSENT:       None         ATTEST:       BERNICE E. SEIDEL         Clerk, Board of Supervisors       CHAIRMAN, Board of Supervisors         By       Supervisors         By       Supervisors         By       Deputy	1
<ul> <li>government-written contract would strip the workers of the protected right to continue to protest the Agricultural Labor Relations Board; and</li> <li>WHEREAS, the California Court of Appeal unanimously ruled that the Agricultural Labor Relations Board's government-written forced contracting scheme to be unconstitutional.</li> <li>NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Fresno County Board of Supervisors hereby proclaims March 28, 2017 as "Dignity and Right for Valley Farmworkers Day" in the County of Fresno.</li> <li>THE FOREGOING was passed and adopted by the following vote of the Board of Supervisors the County of Fresno this 28TH day of March, 2017, to-wit:</li> <li>AYES: Supervisors, Borgeas, Magsig, Mendes, Pacheco, Quintero NOES: None ABSENT: None</li> <li>ATTEST: BERNICE E. SEIDEL Clerk, Board of Supervisors</li> <li>By Suson Bishop Deputy</li> </ul>	2	the last few years and have been directed against the Agricultural Labor Relations Board, yet the government-written contract would strip the workers of the protected right to continue to protest
<ul> <li>WHEREAS, the California Court of Appeal unanimously ruled that the Agricultural Labor Relations Board's government-written forced contracting scheme to be unconstitutional.</li> <li>NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Fresno County Board of Supervisors hereby proclaims March 28, 2017 as "Dignity and Right for Valley Farmworkers Day" in the County of Fresno.</li> <li>THE FOREGOING was passed and adopted by the following vote of the Board of Supervisors the County of Fresno this 28TH day of March, 2017, to-wit:</li> <li>AYES: Supervisors, Borgeas, Magsig, Mendes, Pacheco, Quintero NOES: None ABSENT: None</li> <li>ATTEST: BERNICE E. SEIDEL Clerk, Board of Supervisors</li> <li>By Susan Bishop Deputy</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>Average in the interference is a subscription of the process in the interference of the process in the county of Fresho.</li> <li>THE FOREGOING was passed and adopted by the following vote of the Board of Supervisors the County of Fresho this 28TH day of March, 2017, to-wit:         <ul> <li>AYES:</li> <li>Supervisors, Borgeas, Magsig, Mendes, Pacheco, Quintero</li> <li>NOES:</li> <li>None</li> <li>ABSENT:</li> <li>None</li> </ul> </li> <li>ATTEST:</li> <li>BERNICE E. SEIDEL</li> <li>Clerk, Board of Supervisors</li> <li>By Supervisors</li> <li>By Supervisors</li> </ul>		WHEREAS, the California Court of Appeal unanimously ruled that the Agricultural Labor
<ul> <li>THE FOREGOING was passed and adopted by the following vote of the Board of Supervisors the County of Fresno this 28TH day of March, 2017, to-wit:</li> <li>AYES: Supervisors, Borgeas, Magsig, Mendes, Pacheco, Quintero NOES: None ABSENT: None ABSENT: None ABSENT: None ABSENT: CHAIRMAN, Board of Supervisors</li> <li>ATTEST: BERNICE E. SEIDEL Clerk, Board of Supervisors</li> <li>By Susan Bishop Deputy</li> <li>7</li> </ul>		proclaims March 28, 2017 as "Dignity and Right for Valley Farmworkers Day" in the
NOES: None ABSENT: None ABSENT: None ATTEST: BERNICE E. SEIDEL Clerk, Board of Supervisors By Susan Bishop Deputy 7		THE FOREGOING was passed and adopted by the following vote of the Board of Supervisors of the County of Fresno this 28 TH day of March, 2017, to-wit:
ABSENT: None ABSENT: None ALMA CHAIRMAN, Board of Supervisors ATTEST: BERNICE E. SEIDEL Clerk, Board of Supervisors By Susan Bishop Deputy	0
ATTEST: BERNICE E. SEIDEL Clerk, Board of Supervisors By Susan Bishop Deputy 7	1
ATTEST: BERNICE E. SEIDEL Clerk, Board of Supervisors By Susan Bishop Deputy 7	2	CHAIRMAN, Board of Supervisors
<ul> <li>BERNICE E. SEIDEL Clerk, Board of Supervisors</li> <li>By Susan Bishop Deputy</li> </ul>	3	ATTEST
By Susan Bishop Deputy	4	BERNICE E. SEIDEL
7	5
	6
8	7
	8	