20 of which is in issue in the proceeding.
21

22 2.81.080 – General Authority of County Hearing Officer
23

24 When any provision of the Ordinance Code, any resolution of the Board of Supervisors
25 or any policy of a County Department provides that an appeal from an administrative action by a

County officer or department shall be assigned to a Hearing Officer appointed under this Chapter, the Hearing Officer shall have the authority to conduct a hearing, receive evidence, administer oaths, rule on the admissibility of evidence and upon questions of law, and any other powers or duties authorized by law. The Hearing Officer's authority on a particular matter, however, may be limited by the applicable Ordinance Code. Quasi-legislative matters referred to the Hearing Officer for decision retain their quasi-legislative nature and nothing in the appeal or decision of such matter shall be subject to County Ordinances, rules or State law governing quasi-judicial hearings or appeals. The Hearing Officer shall render a written decision, including any findings or conclusions of law required for the decision and submit the decision to the Clerk to the Board Supervisors who shall promptly mail a copy to all parties along with a proof of service.

2.81.090 – Testimony, Rights and Evidence

Oral evidence shall be taken by the Hearing Officer only upon oath or affirmation during the hearing. Each party shall have the following rights during a hearing:

1. to call and examine witnesses;
2. to introduce exhibits;
3. to cross-examine opposing witnesses on any matter relevant to the issues whether or not the matter was elicited or discussed during direct examination;
4. to impeach witnesses regardless of which party first called them to testify; and,
5. to rebut unfavorable or negative evidence.

The Hearing Officer is authorized to control the scope of evidence and the parties' means to obtain evidence in a particular hearing. The Hearing Officer may direct any party to produce documentary or other evidence in that party's control if reasonably necessary to the

1 determination of the matter pending before the Hearing Officer and may consider any refusal or
2 failure to produce such evidence in rendering a decision. If the party against whom the agency
3 is proceeding does not testify on his or her own behalf, that party may be called and examined
4 or cross-examined.

5 The hearing need not be conducted according to technical rules relating to evidence or 6 witnesses, except as provided in this Chapter. Any relevant evidence shall be admitted if it is 7 the sort of evidence on which responsible persons are accustomed to rely in the conduct of 8 serious affairs, regardless of the existence of any common law or statutory rule that might make
9 improper the admission of the evidence over objection in civil actions. Hearsay evidence may 10 be used for the purpose of supplementing or explaining other evidence, but shall not be 11 sufficient in itself to support a finding unless it would be admissible over objections in civil 12 actions. The rules of privilege shall be effective to the same extent that they are now or 13 hereafter may be recognized in civil actions, and irrelevant and unduly repetitious evidence shall 14 be excluded.

15 16 2.81.100 – Record of the Hearing 17

18 A Hearing Officer shall cause an audio recording of the hearing to be made. Any party
19 at his or her own expense may provide for the taking of testimony by a qualified stenographic
20 reporter.
21

22 2.81.110 – Cost of Preparation of Record of Hearing 23

24 Except when otherwise prescribed by statute, the actual costs of preparing the record of 25 proceedings shall be borne by the person requesting the record. No written request for a record of proceedings shall be deemed filed with the County unless and until such person has deposited with the County the estimated costs of preparation thereof as determined by the officer responsible for such preparation, with the difference, if any, from actual costs to be refunded at the time of delivery of the record.

Upon payment of the requisite fees to the responsible enforcement agency, that agency shall prepare a duplicate audio recording of the proceedings, a copy of any documentary evidence admitted at the hearing and any pleadings, notice, order, recommended order, final order or other paper relating to the case. The cost of preparing the record may be waived for individuals who meet the qualifications of a fee waiver in the Superior Court of this State.

2.81.120 – Rules of Procedure

The Board of Supervisors by ordinance or resolution may adopt rules of procedure governing the conduct of hearings.

Section 2: This ordinance shall take effect thirty (30) days after final passage.
