ALTERNATIVE ACTION(S):

Your Board may choose to not accept the donation, in which case the funds will not be available to support the development of both the new Clovis and the future Reedley Library capital construction projects.

FISCAL IMPACT:

There is no Net County Cost associated with the recommended actions. The Thompson Family Trust donation, in the amount of $85,000, is intended to equally support both the new Clovis and future Reedley Library capital construction projects. The donation of $85,000 will increase the Fund Balance under restricted donations in County Library Book Fund Org 7521. Specifically, half ($42,500) of the donation is to be deposited into Org 75215350 Clovis Capital General, and half ($42,500) is to be deposited into Org 75215360 Reedley Capital General. The Library will return to the Board at a later date to request sufficient appropriations to support the Clovis and Reedley Library capital construction projects.

DISCUSSION:

On June 2, 2015, the Board provided direction for the Library to build a new and larger facility in the City of Clovis to replace the current branch. The current Clovis Library is 8,600 square feet. The City of Clovis acquired a parcel of vacant land at 755 Third Street, in the Old Town area of Clovis, for the purposes of constructing facilities to include a new library, senior center, transit hub and sufficient parking.

On August 25, 2015, the Board also provided direction for the Library to build a new and larger facility in the City of Reedley to replace the current branch. The current Reedley Library is 5,000 square feet, and has served the community since 1973. The City of Reedley has contacted the Internal Services Department, and provided notification of their intention to donate two adjacent vacant properties located at 1819 11th Street, Reedley CA 93654, to the County of Fresno for the purpose of building a new library branch. The City of Reedley is donating the properties on behalf of the Friends of the Reedley Branch Library. The Library is planning to build an 11,000 square foot building that will include a children's room, teen space, meeting room, study areas, quiet room, and an innovation hub where people can choose to be creative.

The Library received the donation check in the amount of $85,000 from the Thompson Family Trust, with the intent that it be used to support equally the building of both the new Clovis ($42,500), and the future Reedley ($42,500) Library facilities. Upon your Board's approval of the recommended action, the Library will accept the donation. It should be noted the Library's Facilities Master Plan is also on today's Board date.
