DISCUSSION:

The Delilah Fire Lookout is located nine miles North of Highway 180 at the end of Millwood Road. The first indication of a fire lookout on Pine Ridge where the Delilah Fire Lookout is located was recorded on the Sequoia National Forest map in 1916, with the function to report fires to the Forest Ranger at the McKenzie Guard Station.

During World War II the lookout at Delilah was commissioned by the Army Air Corps to watch for enemy aircraft as part of the Aircraft Warning Service.

There have been approximately three different lookout structures on this site. The current lookout structure was obtained from the Lemoore Naval Air Station in 1959.

During the 1980's and 1990's, the California Department of Forestry and the Sequoia National Forest provided funding for this lookout. The Delilah lookout lost this funding in 1998 and was abandoned. It is currently staffed on an as-needed basis for emergency use only.

In 2015, the Delilah Fire Lookout played a major role in reporting the presence of smoke that was the earliest sign of what would become known as the Rough Fire (July-November 2015).

The Historical Landmarks and Records Advisory Commission first reviewed the application during its March 10, 2016 meeting and, during the May 12, 2016 meeting, unanimously voted to recommend that the structure be listed on the Fresno County's List of Historic Places.
