DISCUSSION:

In April 2017, the Fresno County Public Library received a donation check in the amount of $600 from a private donor. The donation is to be used to pay for a print subscription to the San Francisco Chronicle for one library branch. This donation will pay for approximately eight months of the newspaper subscription. Eleven branches currently have a subscription to the San Francisco Chronicle. The donation may be used to pay for continuing one of these subscriptions, or for a new subscription at another branch.
