What will the celebration entail?

Highlighting Borderline Personality Disorder Awareness Month will be done through emails, social media posts, internal or external newsletters, and community outreach events as they become available. There aren't any specific community events identified at the moment, but should the Department attend, the Department would share educational materials at the events. Communication can be viewable by any community resident who follows the Department's social media platforms.

What is the public purpose of the Celebration?

Borderline Personality Disorder Awareness Month will be observed to reduce stigma, educate the public, and provide resources for the individuals affected by this complex condition. It focuses on fostering understanding of borderline personality disorder, which involves intense emotions, unstable relationships, and self-image struggles.
