What will the celebration entail?

Highlighting National Mental Health Counseling Week will be done through emails, social media posts, internal or external newsletters, and community outreach events as they become available. There aren't any specific community events identified at the moment, but should the Department attend, the Department would share educational materials at the events. Communication can be viewable by any community resident who follows the Department's social media platforms.

What is the public purpose of the Celebration?

While often working behind the scenes, counselors are highly trained experts. This week highlights their specialized skills in navigating complex human emotions and behaviors. Dedicated recognition helps prevent professional burnout by ensuring these individuals feel seen, valued, and supported by their peers and leadership.
